

AUTUMN TEAS & TALKS 2018

HOPE UNITED REFORMED CHURCH
8 Trinity Street, Weymouth, DT4 8TW

Members: £2.00 Non-members: £2.50

Doors Open at 2pm Talks begin at 2.30pm
Tea & biscuits served from 2pm

DATE	SUBJECT	SPEAKER
Monday October 8th	The history of the Conservation movement with reference to the conservation areas of Weymouth and how these areas help to preserve the heritage of our town	Colin Ellis Former Conservation Officer, Weymouth & Portland Borough Council
Monday October 15th	The Ilchesters of Melbury - the Fox-Strangeways Family Continuing the study of families who have been associated with the heritage of the County	Jane Ferentzi A foremost Dorset Family Historian.
Monday October 22nd	The Monmouth Rebellion – learn more about the story of the Civil War and how it came to Weymouth. Which is ‘celebrated’ every February with the Crab Church Conspiracy in Weymouth	Greg Schofield Retired teacher, local historian
Monday October 29th	Warmwell – home to a holiday park but hiding an important heritage story of the role it played as RAF Warmwell and the Battle of Britain during WWII	Ian Virgo Member of the Weymouth & District Model Engineering Society
Monday November 5th	Within a cannon’s shot of Weymouth A snapshot of our diverse maritime heritage	David Carter Local Maritime Historian
Monday November 12th	Weymouth’s Pile Pier and Pavilion – all you have ever wanted to know about the ‘Peninsular’, continuing our theme of Weymouth’s heritage	Stuart Morris Portland & Weymouth Historian and Author